

Addressed to:
The Federal Communications Commission
Re: 17-108- Restoring Internet Freedom

To whom it may concern,

We support strong net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISP's. All information must be treated equally and without discrimination. The Internet is not a luxury, but a public good, and to throttle the access to it is reprehensible. We urge you to reinstate net neutrality provisions.